LOOKING FOR PROFESSIONAL-LEVEL EDUCATION FOR YOUR FUTURE MINISTERIAL SERVICE TO GOD'S CHURCH?

St. Anthony's Cathedral House of Liturgical Studies prepares students in a number of ways for service, social justice, and ministry in the communions and denominations in which they plan to serve:

- ◆ Delivering core courses that inform their ministry,
- ◆ Providing education and spiritual formation to prepare them for ordination in their respective communions and allowing them to explore their rich denominational heritage and identity (see houses of study or concentrations at right),
- ◆ Offering continuing catechetical studies and seminary degrees programs for their diverse ministries, and
- ◆ Creating opportunities for personal spiritual formation.

St. Anthony offers three tracks: professional-level degrees, non-degree formation programs,

OFFERING PROFESSIONAL/SEMINARY DEGREES

St. Anthony's offers ecclesiastical and professional/seminary degrees. Currently, it offers a Bachelor of Theology \(B.Th.\), Baccalaureate of Theology \(Th.B.\), Master of Divinity \(M.Div.\), and the Doctor of Theology \(Th.D.\). Visit our website (below) for more details. The House of Studies is an educational outreach and operates under the authority of the Ecumenical Catholic Church of Christ (www.ecumenicalccc.org).

LOOKING FOR NON-DEGREE CATECHETICAL AND FORMATION PROGRAMS?

Upon completion of a House of Studies program, graduates will receive a diploma and have:

- 1) Acquired a deeper knowledge of historical theology and the Bible to more effectively function in various roles in a church setting;
- 2) Developed skills in studying the Bible;
- 3) Formed a sound foundation for continuing scholarly biblical studies and theology; and
- 4) Prepared for vocational opportunities as a diaconate or presbyter or in various professional fields in ministry and theology.

Ecumenical Catholic: Plans are currently in progress to offer a series of formation courses in this subject area. Courses focus on ecumenical Catholic principles and moral theology.

Liturgical: The Liturgical House of Study offers students a variety of course options that focus on liturgical formation and tradition, regardless of denominational affiliation.

Eastern Church: A concentration focused on Syriac studies—including Basic Syriac/Aramaic, The Lord's Prayer, Syriac Patristics, and a final project—will offer an introduction to Eastern Church Studies.

Practical Ministry: Students who are interested in building skills for practical ministry (service) across denominational lines may wish to enroll in this multi-year program that will guide them through a series of subjects that proactively address the what, why, and how of service.
